

(scene)

PHOTOS | KEVIN NASH For more party pictures, visit mainlinetoday.com.

1 Mica and Christian Wilson of Bryn Mawr
 2 Dawn Fourier of Chalfont and Pamela Brown of Philadelphia
 3 Eleanor Jean Hendley of Haverford Township and Rhonda Hill Wilson of Bryn Mawr
 4 Allyson Carolina and Geronda Montalvo of Philadelphia
 5 JoAnn Jones of Philadelphia and Mary Johnston of York
 6 Richard and Bernadette Furia of Wynnewood
 7 Omari Thomas of Camden and Ted Durkin of Wyndmoor
 8 Bill Bishop of Philadelphia and Mary Young of Upper Merion

UNCF fundraiser) Inquiring Minds

More than 50 supporters of the United Negro College Fund gathered at the Bryn Mawr home of Rhonda Hill Wilson on Sept. 9 to raise awareness and funds for UNCF's "A Mind Is" Annual Giving Society. Wilson was recently named Pennsylvania ambassador for the society. This special group has recognized the urgent need to provide the resources necessary to support thousands of talented students nationwide. Members of the society offer annual contributions, which go toward providing scholarships, attracting and retaining talented faculty, and supporting the academic programs UNCF students need. "I have always been committed to education for young people," says Wilson. "It's an honor to work with UNCF." Also showing their support for the cause were former KYW-TV reporter Eleanor Jean Hendley, KYW Newsradio community affairs reporter Karin Phillips and Madame Justice Debra Todd of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania. The inaugural event was a rousing success, raising more than $20,000 for the United Negro College Fund. —T.B.