

Final Thought

My advice to women is.....

Live, love and laugh out loud.

OUR FEATURED READER:

Gina Furia Rubel, Esq.

Owner of Furia Rubel Communications, Inc. & President of the Bucks County Women's Business Forum, a non-profit organization.

The motto I like to live by...

*Family comes first,
integrity is inherent,
respect is earned, and happiness is a choice.*

How do you spend your free time?

I can be found spending time with my husband and our children gardening, birding, playing with our dogs, taking photographs, playing basketball, cooking, traveling and hiking. When the rest of the gang is asleep, I can be found writing business articles, managing my blog, The PR Lawyer, and working on the launch of my latest book, Everyday Public Relations for Lawyers.

My favorite restaurant is.....

We love to eat out as a family. I have a favorite for just about every type of mood imaginable. You can find us dining on authentic Italian at Domani Star (try the meatballs), sushi at Ooka, eating pizza at Nat's and thin crust at Jule's, having Mexican at Los Serapes, dining riverside at the Black Bass Hotel, enjoying Sunday breakfast at Cross Keys Diner and sipping coffee and networking at Bucks County Coffee Company. For the most romantic and wonderful experience, I love Tara in Upper Black Eddy.

What I love about living in Bucks County is...

Living in Bucks County provides the best of all worlds. It's a hotbed of arts, culture, nature and business. There are beautiful sprawling farms, amazing covered bridges, wonderful museums, fine dining, marvelous artists, excellent schools, thriving businesses, expansive shopping and most of all, wonderful people. Everything we can possibly enjoy, want or need is right here in our back yard.

What do you enjoy doing on a rainy day?

On a rainy day, I like to cook a hearty meal and cuddle up with my husband and kids while we enjoy a movie in our renovated 19th Century barn.

Where is your favorite place to shop?

My favorite place to shop is the Doylestown Book Store with my family.

What inspires you?

I am inspired personally by my family, spiritually through prayer and meditation, and intellectually by the many brave and selfless women who have led the way for the rest of us to have choices to vote, to mother, to work, and to love.
